

NEWS RELEASE

Issued jointly from the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency and the Nebraska Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (NEVOAD)

Lincoln, NE, Friday, April 11, 2019 – The Nebraska Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (NEVOAD) and its community partners will open a Multi-Agency Resource Center (MARC) at the Columbus Fraternal Order of Eagles, 3205 12th St, Columbus.

The MARC will offer impacted residents additional aid and resources, including financial assistance for those who qualify, from multiple relief agencies. The MARC will be open from 1 to 8 p.m., April 14.

The MARC brings relief resources and offers residents convenient access to agencies in one central location. The American Red Cross, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Salvation Army and the Nebraska Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (NEVOAD) are just a few of the organizations that will be available at the MARC.

This is one of several MARCs that will be open throughout the flood zone over the coming weeks.

“Our goal is to get resources and referrals to people in need, and anyone affected by the recent floods is welcome,” said Mark Lentz, Community Engagement and Partnerships Lead for the Red Cross disaster relief effort.

What: Multi-Agency Resource Center – Columbus, Nebraska

When: Sunday, April 14, 1 to 8 p.m.

Where: Fraternal Order of Eagles, 3205 12th St, Columbus, NE 68601