$50.6 Million Approved for Nebraskans After March Flooding

One month after the March 21 major disaster declaration for Nebraska flooding, more than $50.6 million in federal funding has been approved for Nebraskans affected by the disaster. The State of Nebraska, FEMA, other federal agencies, the private sector and nonprofit and faith-based organizations continue to support recovery efforts.

As of April 22:

- FEMA has approved $19.5 million in Individual Assistance for households, including rental assistance, repair assistance and assistance for other disaster-related needs.
- The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has approved $15.9 million in low-interest disaster loans to businesses of all sizes, private nonprofits, homeowners and renters.
- The National Flood Insurance Program has approved $15.1 million in flood claims.

More than 5,000 households have applied for FEMA assistance. More than 4,200 home inspections have been completed in the 27 counties and the Santee Sioux Nation that are designated for Individual Assistance. FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance teams are canvassing affected neighborhoods and have visited 14,360 homes.

Disaster Recovery Centers are providing one-on-one help for survivors. Recovery specialists from FEMA and SBA provide information on available services, explain assistance programs and help survivors complete or check the status of their applications.

More than 6,300 Nebraskans were provided emergency shelter by the American Red Cross. More than 154,000 meals were served by American Red Cross, the Salvation Army and Southern Baptist Disaster Relief and Operation BBQ.

Recovery activities continue at an urgent pace. The State of Nebraska is leading a Housing Task Force in partnership with FEMA and other agencies to address housing shortages and unmet needs in Nebraska communities affected by flooding. The state is conducting applicant briefings for public entities applying for FEMA's Public Assistance Program. FEMA continues to process applications for Individual Assistance. Communities are removing debris from the flood. The state and FEMA are planning hazard mitigation actions that will reduce the potential for damage from future storms.

Housing Resources for Disaster Survivors

The State of Nebraska is leading a Housing Task Force in partnership with FEMA and other agencies to address housing shortages and unmet needs in Nebraska communities affected by flooding. A fact sheet listing resources is posted on FEMA's disaster web page: fema.gov/disaster/4420.

Don't Wait; Register with FEMA Now

If you experienced losses as a result of the March flooding, don't wait for a Disaster Recovery Center to open. Register with FEMA immediately and file any insurance claims. Disaster Recovery Centers are opening in the areas affected by the disaster, but this will take time. You can register with FEMA in several ways:

- Online, visit DisasterAssistance.gov. On a smart phone, use the FEMA app. By phone, call 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY) from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Or visit a Disaster Recovery Center and speak to a FEMA specialist one-on-one. To find the nearest DRC, go online to FEMA.gov/DRC.

Applicants for disaster assistance will need:

- Social Security number
- Address of the damaged primary residence
- Description of the damage
- Information about insurance coverage
- A current contact telephone number
- An address where they can receive mail
- Bank account and routing numbers for direct deposit of funds

FEMA Hiring Nebraskans to Work on Disaster Recovery

FEMA is hiring Nebraskans to help with recovery efforts. Anyone interested in temporary job opportunities should go to www.USAJobs.gov. The website is updated as new postings occur.

Type “FEMA Local Hire” in the search box and put “Nebraska” in the location box.

Understanding Your FEMA Letter

If you applied for assistance from FEMA, you will receive a letter in the mail or via email that explains the status of your application and how to respond. It is important to read the letter carefully. Your letter will include the amount of any assistance FEMA may provide and information on the appropriate use of disaster assistance funds.

- You may need to submit additional information for FEMA to continue to process your application.
- If you have questions about the letter, you may go online to DisasterAssistance.gov; call the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY); or visit a Disaster Recovery Center. To find center locations and hours, go online to FEMA.gov/DRC or download the FEMA mobile app.
- If you disagree with FEMA’s decision, or the amount of assistance, you may submit an appeal letter and any documents needed to support your claim, such as a contractor’s estimate for home repairs.
 - Appeal letters and supporting documents may be submitted to FEMA by fax or mail, in person at a Disaster Recovery Center, or online if you have a FEMA online account. To set up a FEMA online account, visit DisasterAssistance.gov, click on “Check Status” and follow the directions.
 - You must file your appeal in writing to FEMA. In a signed and dated letter, you must explain the reason(s) for your appeal. Include: your full name; disaster number; address of the pre-disaster primary residence; your current phone number and address; and your FEMA registration number on all documents.
 - By mail: FEMA National Processing Service Center, P.O. Box 10055, Hyattsville, MD 20782-7055. By fax: 800-827-8112, Attention: FEMA.
