Request for Information Published

Lincoln, Neb. – Due to recent flooding, the State of Nebraska - Nebraska Emergency Management Agency published a Request for Information (RFI) which offers the opportunity for interested individuals and organizations to identify potential services to assist with disaster recovery efforts.

The focus of this RFI is on services that could significantly, and positively, impact the accelerated recovery for Nebraskans, their land and their livelihood. This RFI is issued solely for information and planning purposes. Contractors are restricted from contacting NEMA personnel and Procurement personnel during this time except as stated in the RFI.

Small businesses, small disadvantaged businesses, 8(a)-certified small disadvantaged businesses, HUBZone small businesses, woman-owned small businesses, very small businesses, veteran-owned small businesses, and service-disabled veteran-owned small businesses are encouraged to submit a response.

The schedule of events will be extended to allow for a second question and answer period. It is the responsibility of contractors to check the website for updates and changes.

The RFI can be found at: http://das.nebraska.gov/materiel/purchase_bureau/vendor/rfi.html.
