FEMA Is Hiring Disaster Recovery Workers in Nebraska

LINCOLN, Neb. – The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has an immediate need to fill temporary positions in Lincoln and Norfolk to assist with disaster recovery.

FEMA is hosting a hiring fair Wednesday, Aug. 7, in Omaha, Nebraska. Currently, we are hiring Public Assistance Program Delivery Managers. Please bring your resume and two forms of identification to the hiring fair.

Interviews will be conducted on-site at the following location:

Workforce Development Building
5752 Ames Ave.
Omaha, NE 68104
9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

These temporary positions are 120 days in duration and may be extended in 120-day increments for a maximum 365-day appointment, based on the needs of the disaster.

Qualified candidates must successfully pass a background investigation, be a U.S. Citizen, have experience reviewing federal grant documentation, and developing and presenting correspondence such as reports or briefings.

To see other available positions, go online to USAJOBS.gov .

FEMA's mission is helping people before, during and after disasters.

Disaster recovery assistance is available without regard to race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, disability, English proficiency or economic status. If you or someone you know has faced discrimination, call FEMA toll-free at 800-621-3362, voice/VP/711. Multilingual operators are available. TTY users may call 800-462-7585.

The U.S. Small Business Administration is the federal government's primary source of money for the long term rebuilding of disaster-damaged private property. SBA helps businesses of all sizes, private nonprofit organizations, homeowners and renters fund repairs or rebuilding efforts and cover the cost of replacing lost or disaster-damaged personal property. For more information, applicants may contact SBA's Disaster Assistance Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955. TTY users may also call 800-877-8339. Applicants may also email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov or visit SBA at www.SBA.gov/disaster.
